Customer Reviews

Due to my work routine I am always late or too tired to cook. But at weekends I like to prepare something on my own. I tried a few of the recipes available in this book and it's been very helpful, since the recipes are easy to follow. One of the things that I dislike about certain cookbooks is the relative complexity of most recipes: it can get frustrating sometimes when I don't have a particular ingredient at home, or when I don't have 4 hours to cook. Thankfully, Cookbooks for You : 100 Sensation Breakfast Recipes is packed with recipes that are easy to visualize and to implement, most ingredients can be easily found in the fridge. It's very easy to navigate through the recipes, as they are divided in sections. This way I can find any recipe I want and with a simple tap on the screen I go straight to the point. Actually, it's more convenient than using a printed cookbook, considering that it's not necessary to scroll through the pages to find the desired recipe. Another thing that I like about this book is that you can find quick and easy recipes, like the "Scramble eggs and ham breakfast burritos", or something a bit more intricate, like the "breakfast churros". Also, it has a lot of recipes that the kids enjoy, and their favorites are definitely the smoothies and omelets. I recommend this book to anyone who loves breakfast but can't seem to find the time to make breakfast. Having this cookbook handy will definitely be an encouragement to start the healthy habit of eating a proper morning meal.

I purchased this cookbook recently as I have been looking for some different ideas for me and my family to try at breakfast. During the week we do not have time to eat breakfast together but at the weekend we have been trying different recipes from this book. The results have been brilliant, we have all had delicious breakfasts together that were a lot simpler to make than I would have thought. A lot of the recipes are pretty quick to make and are perfect for the weekend when you have a little more time in the mornings.

The recipes in here really are sensational. The 100 delicious concoctions that are in this ebook will keep me going for quite some time. It also includes smoothies and veggie options. Some of my favorites are the Sausage twists, stuffed french toast, and veggie breakfast burrito. Sooo good! Well, I really like this book, so five stars.

Okay, so hands down, breakfast is a family event for us on the weekends, but we have gotten into the bad habit of granola bars and powdered breakfast drinks during the work and school week. Well, I picked up Cookbooks for You: 100 Sensation Breakfast Recipes and we couldn't be more delighted. The family's favorite breakfast recipe is the Top Frittata with Feta. And the Au Gratin Potato Muffins, yummm! With some fresh squeezed orange juice, you have a great Sunday Brunch. The recipes are made with time and kitchen equipment in mind, but I'm really happy they work with pure flour and sugar and fresh wholesome fruits. The Cherry Chocolate Scones are now a part of any morning that we are at the beach. You will, without a doubt, love the country fresh taste of the Traditional Blueberry Muffins with delicious buttermilk and pure vanilla. A great cookbook with recipes the entire family will love.
