Customer Reviews

This is my first E-Cookbook experience. I love recipes. The healthier and easier the better!! experiment with new recipes one to two times a week, as I don't want to get bored with my food, and to be honest, I enjoy flavour and having a delicious meal at home. Mediterranean Healthy Gourmet seems to check all my requirements with seriously simple recipes that have quick prep time, and quick cooking times!! I've dived into actually cooking two of the side dishes so far. And both were cooked in the microwave, which is a REALLY odd way for me to cook - I'm usually anti-microwave, but figured it might be good - worst case scenario, It tastes bad and we gorge on Pita and Hummus afterwards. I'm new to eating Sweet Potatoes, but am trying to eat better - so I tried the Potatoes and Sweet Potatoes recipe first. It was stinking quick to prepare, and then in the microwave it went. I'll be honest - I have this conception that microwave cooked food would be over or undercooked, taste weird, or dry out. By using a touch of olive oil, not only was this meal cooked in 8 minutes (I took time off for our more powerful microwave), everything was cooked perfectly! So much so, I cooked it again last night and Husband even ate some sweet potatoes (which he hates). SCORE! The second recipe I've tried is the "Speed of light" Zucchini - which uses Dill, a new ingredient for me - seriously, I've never cooked with Dill, thinking it would make food taste like pickles (I love pickles, but not for my meals to taste like it. And it's another microwave meal. Easy peasy prep and 6 minutes in the microwave, we had perfect Zucchini. Normally husband complains about my zucchini cooking skills, but he ate every last piece.
